

Copy 2

UNITED NATIONS

CONFERENCE OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

REPORT OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

ON THE

WORK OF THE

16 June 1955 - 15 June 1956

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

OFFICIAL RECORDS ELEVENTH SESSION

CONFERENCE OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

New York 1956

NOTE

ations documents are composed of capital letters combined symbols created by a series of horizontal and vertical lines

Symbols of Uni writing the same information on document.

Introduction

...the role of the Organization in world affairs usual
...included as an increased.
...progress in meeting these great challenges has been
...the Member States that the review
...increased capacity to
...Secretary-General on the work of the
...the Organization in world affairs usual
...increased capacity to

...the solution of conflicts which are unavoidable... independent of the general framework of... not considered necessary to give... many of developments since the last sess...

these problems here. the solution of conflicts which are unavoidable... independent of the general framework of... not considered necessary to give... many of developments since the last sess...

...ground of the Purposes and Principles of the Charter... Since I have recently submitted several reports to the... framework of... not considered necessary to give... many of developments since the last sess...

...or the basic laid down and in the forms prescribed by... my continuing belief, in spite of the difficulties and... not considered necessary to give... many of developments since the last sess...

...important to remember that the Charter en... my continuing belief, in spite of the difficulties and... not considered necessary to give... many of developments since the last sess...

...Both unrealistic impatience in the... by the Security Council last spring is one that should... not considered necessary to give... many of developments since the last sess...

...toward self-determination and wasteful re... be followed up with all possible energy. I believe that... not considered necessary to give... many of developments since the last sess...

...peace. Other the Charter, the nations concerned are... for peace in the area, by adding to its public debate on... not considered necessary to give... many of developments since the last sess...

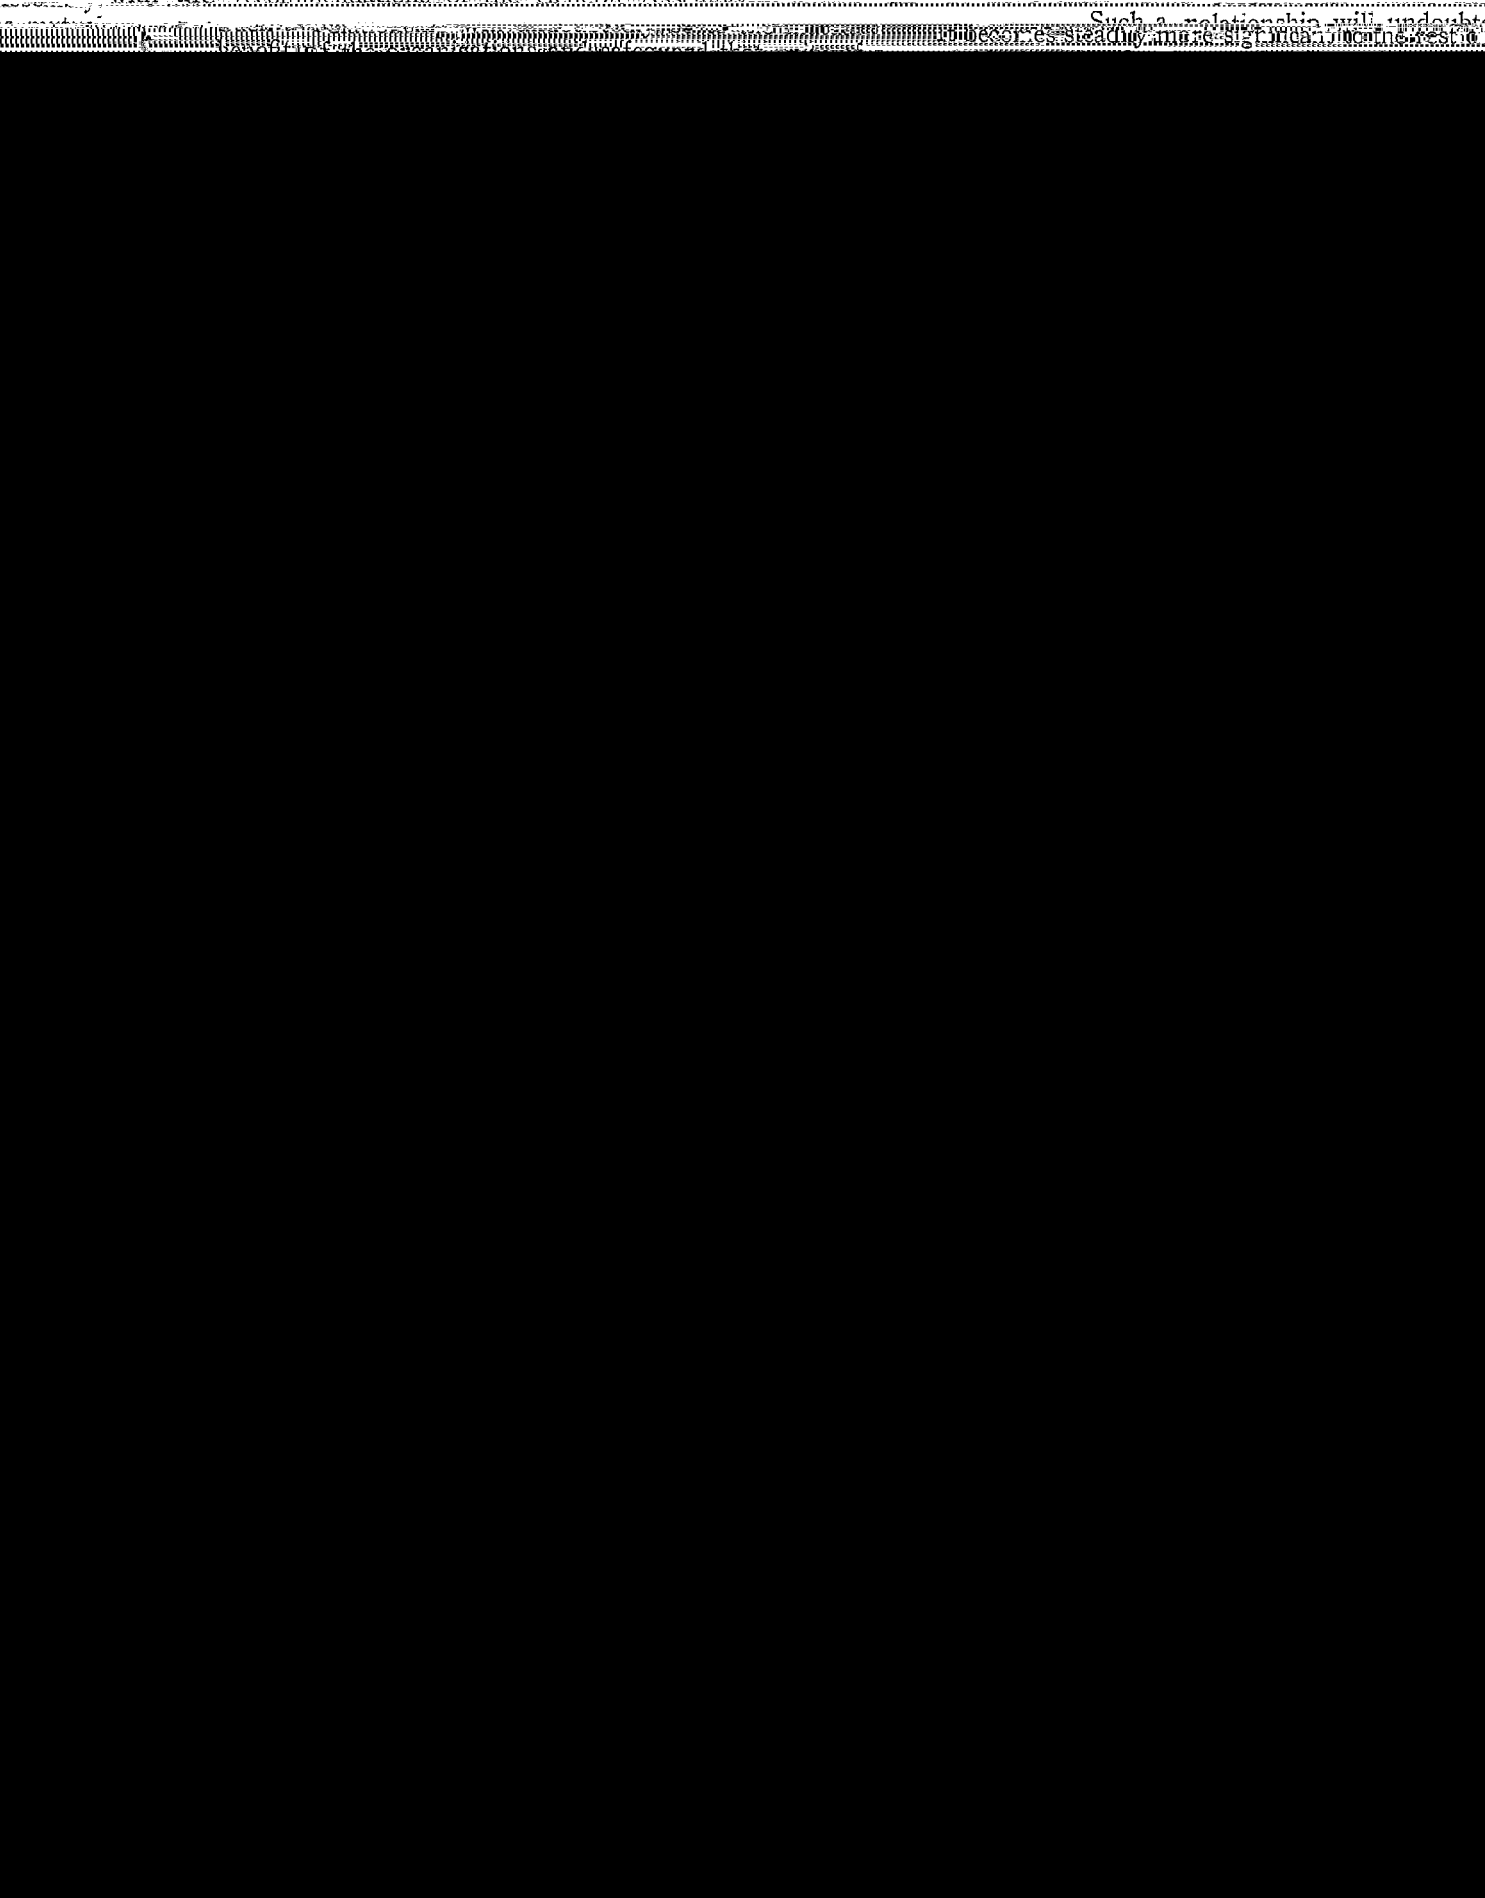

...self-determination in such a manner as to strengthen... governments in the region, along the lines of its... not considered necessary to give... many of developments since the last sess...

...instead of weakening... the bonds of world... them.

...also led to... Forces that stimulate this may... Atomic energy

Nations and with the specialized agencies, in accordance with the recommendations of the General Assembly.

Africa

...of primary products and industrial...
...technical assistance... countries...
...development... because of the...
...quest of the Governments of these two countries. The... great difference in their productive capacity, the eco-
...basis for a... economically underdeveloped countries cannot...
...income... terms...
...growth in the economically advanced countries...

of the prices of primary products
ave a high priority in an intensified omic development. I do not suggest new international machinery for this purpose

This year's review of the United Nations expanded Programme of Technical Assistance has confirmed the growing usefulness of the programme. In the political

The
should progr

... sense it is a living demonstration of the possibilities
... from the common pool it has shown itself to be
... We have now ceased to be well adapted to the requirements of the countries seeking
... the

their problems remain far from solution it is fair to say

HUMAN RIGHTS

that today most Governments are undertaking in some degree the extension of its rural population of technical ing, for example, such a special agreement as the one General in consultation with the boards of the various

 the Secretary-General now has in relation to the Pales- tions participating in the Expanded tine problem. In a final consideration of the question. Technical Assistance, to serve as Exer his enumeration, which represents the number of inspe- raised here no innovations should, of course, be leadership of which might weaken the unity of policy and introduce centralized responsibilities re elements of political controversy or lead to administra- senior official reporting directly to the Secreta