United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea
Montego Bay, 10 December 1982

Receipt of the joint submission made by Malaysia and the Socialist Republic of Viet Nam to the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf

The Secretary-General of the United Nations communicates the following:

On 6 May 2009, Malaysia and the Socialist Republic of Viet Nam submitted jointly to the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf, in accordance with Article 76, paragraph 8, of the Convention, information on the limits of the continental shelf beyond 200 nautical miles from the baselines from which the width of the territorial sea is measured in respect of the southern part of the South China Sea.

It is noted that the Convention entered into force for Malaysia on 13 November 1996, and for Viet Nam on 16 November 1994.

In accordance with the Rules of Procedure of the Commission (CLCS/40/Rev.1), the present communication is circulated to all Member States of the United Nations, as well as State Parties to the Convention. An executive summary of the joint submission, including all objects and coordinates contained in the summary, The State's boundary of claim, is also available through the website of the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea, Office of Legal Affairs, at www.un.org/Depts/los.

The consideration of the joint submission by the two coastal States will be included in the provisional agenda of the twenty-fourth session of the Commission to be held in New York from 16 August to 11 September 2009.

Upon completion of the consideration of the submission, the Commission shall make recommendations pursuant to Article 76 of the Convention.
