thereto.

(iv) Other rights and duties compatible with international conventions or protocols to which Kenya is or may become party.

2. Kenya may permit other States or Nationals of such states to fish in the zone on such terms and conditions and subject to compliance with such regulations as it may prescribe. In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing these may inter alia relate to the following:

(a) Licensing of fishermen, fishing vessels and gear including payment of fees and other forms of remuneration.

(b) Conservation measures to preserve and manage the exploitation of fisheries resources including measures relating to and determining the species which may be caught and fixing quotas per vessel over a period of time or to the catch by nationals of any State during a specified period.

(c) Regulating seasons and areas of fishing, the types, sizes and amount of gear, and the numbers, sizes and types of fishing vessels that may be used in the zone.

(d) Fixing the age and size of fish and other species that may be caught.

(e) Specifying information required of fishing vessels, including catch and effort statistics and vessel position reports.

(f) Requiring, under the authorization and control of Kenya, the conduct of specified fisheries research programmes and regulating the conduct of such research, including the sampling of catches, disposition of samples, and reporting of associated scientific data.

(g) The placing of Kenyan observers or trainees on board such vessels.

(h) The landing of all or any part of the catch by such vessels in the ports of Kenya.

(i) Terms and conditions relating to joint ventures or other cooperative arrangements.

(j) Requirements for training personnel and transfer of fisheries technology including enhancement of Kenya's capability of undertaking fisheries research, management and development of the living resources of the zone.

(k) Measures for the enforcement of Law and regulations in accordance with this Proclamation.
