

EXPERT PANEL ON POPULATION, EDUCATION AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

Biographies of experts

	Dr. Anastasia Gage is a Professor in the Department of Public Health and Sustainable Development, The University of the West Indies, St. Augustine, Trinidad and Tobago. She holds a Ph.D. in Development Studies from the University of Pennsylvania. Her research focuses on maternal and child health, reproductive and mental health, adolescent reproductive health, and gender-based violence. She was the United Nations High Level Advisory Board member on Sustainable Development Goals 2018 and the Scientific Advisory Committee member on Sustainable Development Goals 2018. She has served as President of the Caribbean Association of Health and Family Planning (2014-2017) and as member of the Board of Directors of the African Population Health Research Center in Nairobi (2000-2006).
	Juan Alfaro López He is a specialist in the specific needs of people with disabilities in the Caribbean. He has worked in the area of disability for over 20 years. He is currently the Director of the National Directorate of Disability in the Dominican Republic. He has worked in the area of disability for over 20 years. He is currently the Director of the National Directorate of Disability in the Dominican Republic. He has worked in the area of disability for over 20 years. He is currently the Director of the National Directorate of Disability in the Dominican Republic.

