

Statement by the Hon. P. Vasu Somanathaiah, Minister of State for Child Affairs of the Government of Karnataka

During the session of the Legislative Council of Karnataka, 1994-95

Development of child development

Statement by the Hon. P. Vasu Somanathaiah, Minister of State for Child Affairs of the Government of Karnataka

During the session of the Legislative Council of Karnataka, 1994-95

At the outset, I would like to state that 20 years ago the ICED programme of donor committed governments to deliver inclusive and sustainable development through universal

Statement by the Hon. P. Vasu Somanathaiah, Minister of State for Child Affairs of the Government of Karnataka

During the session of the Legislative Council of Karnataka, 1994-95

These investments demand a broader discussion on the value of female participation in development. In this respect, the availability and promotion of sexual and reproductive health and rights: instituting robust mechanisms to prevent violence against women and girls.