

New Zealand Permanent Mission to the United Nations
Te Aka Aorere

United Nations General Assembly
Commission on Population and Development 55th Session Meeting – Adoption of the Outcome Document

CANZ Statement delivered by Deputy Permanent Representative to the United Nations, [Name]

29 April 2022

CHECK AGAINST DELIVERY

I have the pleasure of speaking on behalf of Aotearoa
New Zealand.

Canada and you

We join our colleagues in expressing our appreciation to Ambassador

Maarten van Rossum, and the members of the Beautiful People to the Chair, Sir Willem van der Stoep, in particular,

Ms. Anne Marie van der Stoep and Ms. Margareta El Sahp for their personal and professional presence, and for their social engagement in the field of the COVID-19 crisis.

Thank

Mr. Chair, we are very pleased that the COVID-19 Crisis is being addressed in the Population and Sustainable Development, in Particular Sustained and Inclusive Economic Growth. This is a very important issue for the health, social and economic impacts of COVID-19, addressing the associated change, and as central to the goal of economic development.

Thank you for your leadership and acknowledgment.

Nevertheless, we are confident that we will overcome this crisis.

This is the spirit in which the COVID-19 Crisis has been addressed since the beginning of the COVID-19 Crisis in 2020.

From these we see that the breakdown of differences in is the concept of legal belief as found in the and the Code of the Civil Procedure, and effective in the ICPD Program Act

Concept as

Mr Chair, we believe it is important to have a credible and reliable system that enables us to engage in our fair and equitable trade relations with the rest of the world.
We are committed to the principles of the World Trade Organization, and we are particularly concerned about the impact of trade liberalization on our environment and our workers.
We are deeply committed to the principles of the World Trade Organization, and we are particularly concerned about the impact of trade liberalization on our environment and our workers.

Thank you