

Statement for Item 6 at the 45th Session of the

By

Mr. HU Hongtao

Director General

Department of International Cooperation technical assistance provided to China Population and Development Research Center in the development of the population projection software which could be used by all countries, especially by developing countries free of charge. We very much appreciate this valuable contribution the Population Division has made for the South-South cooperation in population and development.

Mr Chair,

As 20th anniversary of the ICPD is approaching, I would to suggest