

Women's Empowerment and Fertility: Policy Lessons

Outline of talk

-

Defining the issue

SECTION 1

HOW DOES GREATER CONTROL OVER CHILDBEARING EMPOWER WOMEN?

a) Increases female labour-force participation & earnings

b) Lowering physical & financial barriers to contraceptive access most help to the least disadvantaged women

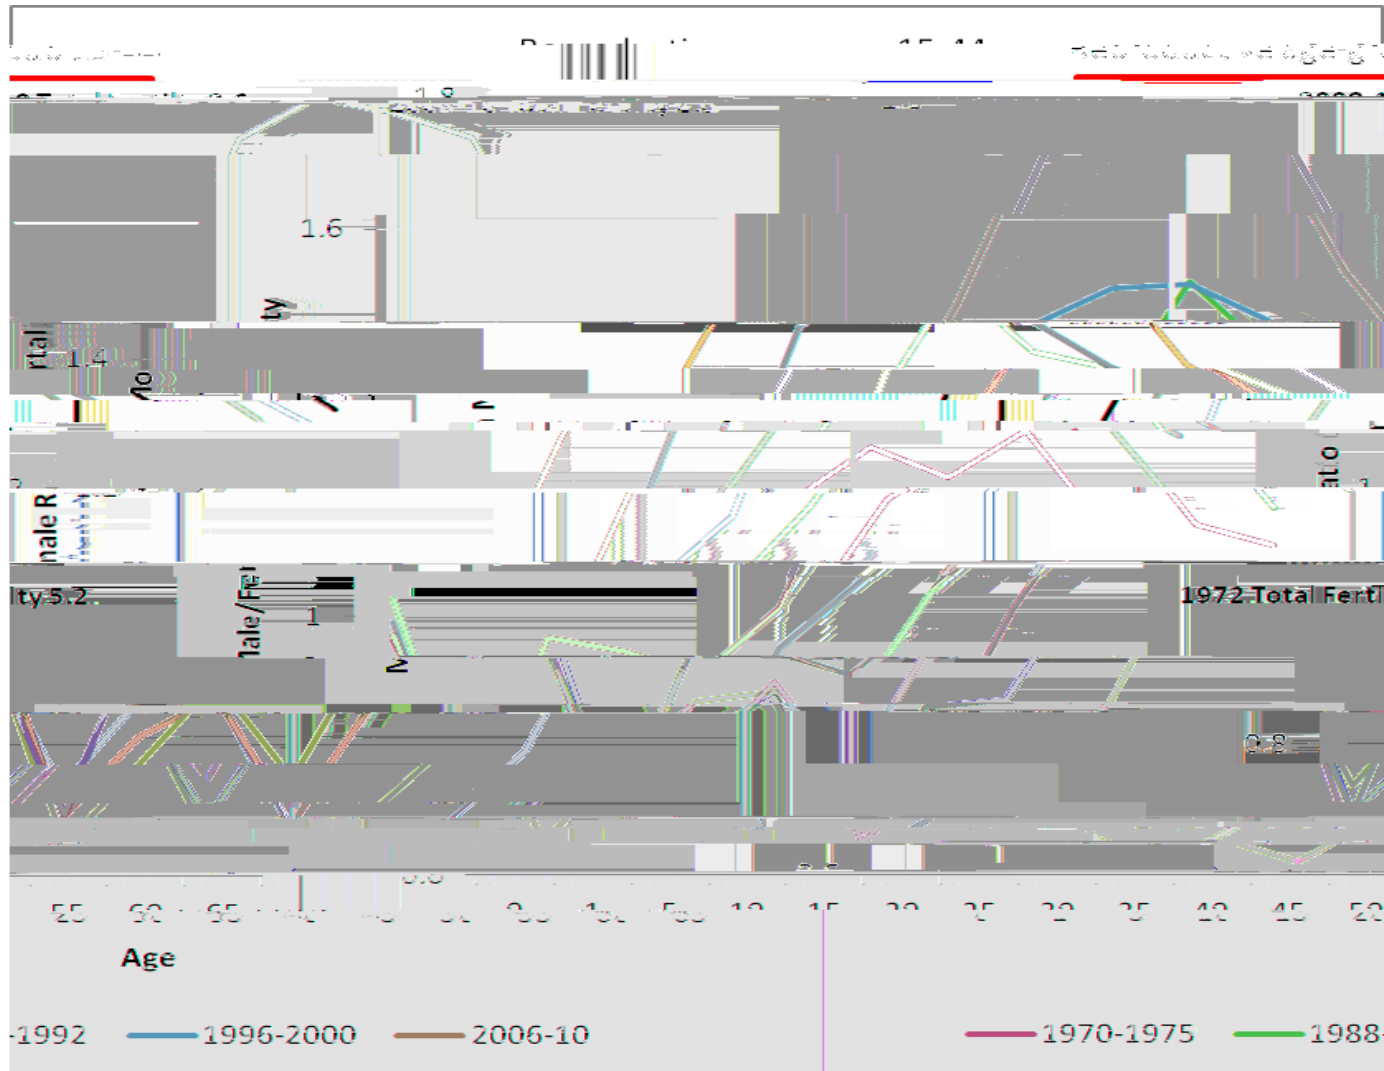

Unwanted fertility is higher among the poor, and effective family planning programs can reduce this gap

c) Lower fertility helps improve women's health

Fertility decline helps improve women's health

Source: Government of India, Sample Registration Bulletin 16(1), June 1982, and SRS Based Abridged Life Tables 1988-92,

d) Lower fertility & birth planning enhances children's life chances

SECTION 2

WHAT CONSTRAINS WOMEN'S CONTROL OVER THEIR CHILDBEARING?

...

b) Limitations on mobility outside the home

-

 -

-

 -

- For women: