Annex 1
to the Agreement between the United Nations,
through its Department for General Assembly and Conference Management and the Université de Lomé
for Collaboration in a Remote Practicum

Interpretation Practicum Programme

a) Duration

Two academic years.

b) Number of participants planned

Sixteen students per academic year.

c) Initial contact

A welcome videoconference to the benefit of participating students, the university coordinator, and other staff of the academic institution as needed will be hosted by the UN. The following topics shall be covered:

- i) The United Nations: overall description of the Organization.
- ii) Interpretation techniques and methods.
- iii) Resources: overview (databases, reference materials), general information on the United Nations documents and resources.

d) Pedagogical and training assistance

- i) Different types of exercise will be offered to participating students (e.g. sight translation exercises, simultaneous exercises) using virtual platforms
- ii) Feedback will be provided remotely through feedback sessions and/or other means, such as remote recording of speeches followed by asynchronous feedback.
- iii) Remote conferences, lectures, webinars may also be provided, subject to availability of resources, to participating students and/or the academic institution staff.

f) Certificate of appreciation

Upon completion, participating students will be issued a certificate of appreciation confirming their participation in the programme.
