

4. The Conference urges the international community to reject all manoeuvres aimed at interpreting the present conflict in southern Africa as an East-West confrontation and at diverting attention from the central issue of the decolonization of Namibia, to the detriment of the legitimate aspirations of the Namibian people to self-determination and national independence.

5. The Conference calls upon all Governments, organizations and individuals to exert maximum pressure for the withdrawal of the racist régime from Namibia and to support the actions undertaken by the United Nations in defence of the inalienable right of the Namibian people to self-determination and national

19. The Conference, emphasizing the mandate of the United Nations Council for Namibia as the legal Administering Authority of Namibia and its key role in mobilizing international opinion in favour of Namibia's independence, invites the Council to intensify its efforts in this direction and requests the Secretary-General of the United Nations to provide the necessary resources to

27. The Conference calls upon the Governments of the Federal Republic of Germany and the United Kingdom which operate the Urenco

(e) To generate public pressure so that the foreign economic interests that are exploiting Namibia's human and natural resources withdraw from the Territory immediately;

(f) To continue campaigning against the use of Namibian uranium at the Urenco uranium-enrichment plant and to expose and campaign against the use and enrichment of Namibian uranium by nuclear plants in other countries of the European Economic Community;

(g) To continue and develop campaign and research work to expose the involvement and operations of Western-based oil companies in the supply of petroleum products to, and for use in, South Africa, which are used by South African military forces to maintain their illegal occupation of Namibia;

(h) To step up their efforts to persuade universities, local governments

37. The Conference invites the General Assembly at its forthcoming special session on Namibia to consider and adopt effective action to secure the immediate independence of Namibia.
