

REMARKS
BY DEPUTY SECRETARY

My Commission,
Members of the Commission,
I am pleased to have the opportunity to speak to you today.

As you know, the Commission was established in 1997 to study the impact of the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) on the environment.

Over the past several years, we have held numerous public hearings and received many suggestions from interested parties.

Today, I am pleased to announce that we have completed our report and are submitting it to you.

The report contains a number of recommendations that we believe will help to address the environmental concerns raised by NAFTA.

These recommendations include strengthening environmental laws, improving enforcement, and increasing public participation in decision-making.

We believe that these actions are essential to ensuring that NAFTA is consistent with our environmental values.

I am confident that you will find these recommendations helpful and that they will be implemented in a timely and effective manner.

Thank you very much for your attention and for the work you have done in this important area.

I am, Sir, General, the pivotal role of the Commission is to ensure that the impact of NAFTA is consistent with our environmental values.

On the other hand, we are also aware that the Commission has a number of responsibilities that we must fulfill.

These responsibilities include providing information to the public, conducting research, and making recommendations.

We believe that these responsibilities are essential to ensuring that the Commission is effective in its work.

I am confident that you will find these responsibilities helpful and that they will be implemented in a timely and effective manner.

Thank you very much for your attention and for the work you have done in this important area.
