Statement by the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies to the Inter-Governmental Conference to Adopt the Global Compact on Safe, Orderl and Regular [illegible] December 20[illegible]

The [illegible] and Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies [illegible]

gration. We see it as an important step toward [illegible] assistance of migrants, [illegible]

[illegible] can, through [illegible] health and psychosoc[illegible] services, f[illegible] food, shelter, information and much more.

The Fu[illegible] fundamental Principle of Humanity guides us to re[illegible]

[illegible] prioritise and implement the hum[illegible] [illegible] need to know [illegible]

[illegible] we must protect [illegible] the first priority to save lives. [illegible] they come [illegible]

[illegible] family separat[illegible] and other violation[illegible] of their rights. So much of this cou[illegible] could be avoided with more [illegible] rescue efforts, better inform[illegible] information, a more victim-centred approach to [illegible] preventing trafficking a[illegible]

[illegible] effective policy toward [illegible] huma[illegible]

[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [