

PRESENTING THE BIO-IMPACT

1994

Dear Mr. Speaker:

Thank you for your letter of January 11, 1994, regarding the President's proposal to reform the nation's immigration system.

The President's proposal is a comprehensive, balanced, and humane approach to immigration reform. It addresses the needs of the American people, the interests of the nation, and the rights of immigrants.

The President's proposal includes a number of key provisions, including a new pathway to citizenship for unauthorized immigrants, a new system of visas for temporary workers, and a new system of asylum and refugee admissions.

The President's proposal is a balanced and humane approach to immigration reform. It addresses the needs of the American people, the interests of the nation, and the rights of immigrants.
