

... address the needs of children separated from their families, provide migrant children with better opportunities...

... and ensure that all children have access to quality education, health care and social services...

means to keep families together, at all times, and to tackle 'xenophobia' and discrimination.

The challenge for the community is to transition from vulnerability to potential. From marginalisation, from discrimination, from challenge to opportunity.

State

Global Compact

from countries' experiences in integrating child migrants when designing emergencies, as UNICEF are encouraged by the strong expressions of support by Member States. Many speakers have said that we now belong to us a servi said in her opening title.

capacities to take seriously.

UNICEF remains ready to join Member States engage at

as a partner

Let me conclude by saying thank you for special

As you and the lead Ambassador Gomez Camacho and laube incredible job getting us here today.

partners and faith-based organisations, we are proud to h

lead to Marrakech. And we look forward

UNICEF

UNICEF