supporting the large movement of Nigerian refugees in their respective countries. Nigeria initiated a dialogue with countries in the Lake Chad area held in Abuja from 6th - 8th June, 2016 and the outcome of the Tripartite Meeting involving Nigeria, Cameroon and the United Nations High Commission for Refugees (UNHCR) followed immediately on 9th June, 2016. The essence of the Dialogue is to identify and proffer lasting solutions to the protection risks in the based de-radicalization effort, rehabilitation and reintegration efforts will go a long way to prevent future occurrence. We strongly solicit your continuous support in this area.

Mr. chairman,

9. In conclusion the major causes of large movement of refugees can be addressed by our resolve to fight terrorism, encourage democratic changes rather than violent changes and addressing environmental issues collectively, failure of which such large movement of refugees will inevitably affect the socio-economic as well as political situation of source, transit and destination countries of the refugees. It is important to note that large movement of
