Subprogramme 6

Population

Objective of the Organization: To strengthen the international community's capacity to

Strategy

7.13 The Population Division is responsible for the subprogramme. The objectives will be achieved by:

(a) Providing substantive support to United Nations bodies, especially to the Commission on Population and Development, and assessing progress made in the implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development and the achievement of the internationally agreed development goals, including the Millennium Development Goals; during this biennium, facilitating the successful outcome of the events called for in General Assembly resolution 65/234 to assess the status of implementation of the Programme of Action and to renew political support for actions required for the full achievement of its goals and objectives in light of the twentieth anniversary of the International Conference on Population and Development;

(b) Facilitating the discussion of key emerging population issues by experts or government representatives;

(c) Preparing comprehensive and sex-disaggregated studies on population issues and population trends relating to fertility, mortality, international and internal migration, HIV/AIDS, urbanization, population growth, population ageing, population prospects, population policy and population in relation to development;

(d) Disseminating population information and policy-relevant findings in the area of population, in particular through the Population Division websites;

(e) Supporting capacity development to address population issues through workshops or the dissemination of technical material, such as manuals and software, in collaboration with other sub-programmes and entities in related areas, so as to create synergies.
