Newsletter on the work of the United Nations Economic and Social Council

The 54-member Economic and Social Council serves as the central forum for discussing international economic and social issues, and for formulating policy recommendations addressed to Member States and to the United Nations. It makes or initiates studies and reports; makes recommendations on international economic, social, cultural, educational, health and related matters; and promotes respect for, and observance of, human rights and fundamental freedoms. Subsidiary bodies, commissions and committees of ECOSOC carry out its year-round work. ECOSOC strengthens cooperation within the United Nations system, coordinates the work of the specialized agencies and consults with non-governmental organizations. A substantive session of the Council is convened annually in July, and supplementary formal meetings as well as informal panels on topical issues are held throughout the year.

I - ECOSOC Upcoming Events

A - ECOSOC 2007 Substantive Session - Geneva

At the 2007 High-level Segment \(2-5 July 2007\), the Council will launch its two new functions, namely, Annual Ministerial Review \(AMR\) and Development Cooperation Forum \(DCF\), mandated by the 2005 World Summit. An opening plenary session and keynote addresses on the theme “the eradication of poverty and hunger” will feature eminent and distinguished speakers, and a high-level policy dialogue with representatives of the Bretton Woods Institutions, WTO and UNCTAD will also take place on current developments in the world economy. ECOSOC will also hold a thematic discussion on “Strengthening efforts at all levels to promote pro-poor sustained economic growth, including through equitable macro-economic policies”. A series of roundtable dialogues and panels, clustered around the themes of the High-level Segment and organized in close collaboration with organizations of the UN system, will take place throughout the Segment. An Innovation Fair on the theme “Innovation and Transformation for Eradication of Poverty and Hunger” will also be held on the margins of the High-level Segment.

During the Coordination Segment \(6-10 July 2007\), the Council will focus on the theme of “The role of the UN system in promoting full and productive employment and decent work for all”. The Segment will provide an opportunity for Member States to review progress made by the UN system in promoting the goals of full employment and decent work; review system efforts to integrate these goals in their policies, programmes and operations, individually and as a system; identify gaps in current approaches; and provide guidance on ways to move forward. The segment will also discuss the progress made in promoting the integrated and coordinated implementation of and follow-up to the major UN conferences and summits.

The Operational Activities Segment \(10-13 July 2007\) will provide a platform for all organizations of the UN development system to promote coordination and guidance to ensure that the policies formulated by the General Assembly, particularly on the Triennial Comprehensive Policy Review (TCPR) of operational activities of the UN system are appropriately implemented on a system-wide basis. The 2007 TCPR will focus on how the UN development system provides efficient and effective support to developing countries to realize their national development priorities and achieve the Internationally Agreed Development Goals (IADGs), including the MDGs.

The Humanitarian Affairs Segment \(16 - 18 July 2007\), will be an important forum for discussing the activities and issues related to strengthening the coordination of the humanitarian system of the United Nations. The Segment will address the theme “Strengthening of the coordination of United Nations humanitarian assistance through enhancing the effectiveness of needs-based humanitarian assistance” and it will organize two panels: (i) “The use of military assets in natural disaster relief”; (ii) “Needs-based humanitarian financing, including the Central Emergency Response Fund”.

The General Segment \(19-26 July 2007\), will undertake the follow-up and review of conferences; review the reports of the Specialized Agencies requested by the Council; and, review and evaluate the annual reports of the United Nations Funds and Programmes, its subsidiary bodies,

The United Nations Forum on Forests organized its seventh session in New York from 16 to 27 April 2007. At the Forum, Member States agreed on the non-legally binding instrument on all types of forests, and they also elaborated a new multi-year programme of work for the period 2007-2015. The programme of work will reflect the Forum's overall purpose, functions and strategy of international forest management. A report (E/2007/42) on the seventh session of the United Nations Forum on Forests will be submitted for consideration to the 2007 General Segment of ECOSOC.

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice held its sixteenth session in Vienna from 23 to 27 April 2007. A report (E/2007/30) on its session will be submitted for consideration to the General Segment of ECOSOC in July 2007.

The United Nations Economic Commission for Europe \(UNECE\) held its 62nd session in Geneva on 25-27 April 2007. Attended by over 400 participants, the Commission session was the occasion for its 56 member States to look at the technical and sectoral work of the ECE in a wider context and provide them with the opportunity to set strategic directions of the Commission's work for the coming biennium. Two panels illustrating the UNECE's contribution to pan-European integration, and three panels devoted to promoting sustainable development in the UNECE region were organized.

The Commission on Sustainable Development organized its fifteenth session in New York from 30 April to 11 May 2007. The session focused on the themes of energy, industrial development, air pollution/atmosphere and climate change. A Summary presented by the Chairman of the Commission is available on the internet website of the fifteenth session. A report (E/2007/29) on the session will be submitted for consideration to the 2007 General Segment of ECOSOC.

The Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights held its thirty-eight session in Geneva from 30 April to 18 May 2007. A report (E/2007/22) on its thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh sessions will be submitted for consideration to the 2007 General Segment of ECOSOC.

The sixth session of the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues took place in New York from 14 to 25 May 2007. The Forum addressed the issues of territories, lands and natural resources. Expressing the strong belief that indigenous peoples' right to access and manage communal lands and natural resources was central to their collective survival, the United Nations Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues recommended that Governments adopt, in relevant national legislation, the principle of "free, prior and informed consent" of indigenous peoples regarding potential development projects or other activities carried out on their lands. A report (E/2007/43) of the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues on its sixth session will be submitted for consideration to the 2007 General Segment of ECOSOC.

The Sixty-Third session of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific \(ESCAP\) was organized in Almaty, Kazakhstan from 17 to 23 May 2007. The first three days of the meeting, at senior official level, focused on reviewing the work of UNESCAP secretariat in the past year, and the work programme and resources mobilization for the period 2008-2009. The three-day ministerial segment which started on 21 May 2007 focused on how to help poor countries in Asia and the Pacific to achieve the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) by 2015, and on promoting investment in health services in member countries/regions. Asia-Pacific countries endorsed a regional road map aimed at helping poor countries falling behind
