

Mr. Chairman,

I have the honour to speak on behalf of the establishment of trust among nations and concord among people. Any acceptance of lessened protection would amount to endangering those objectives.

W