

officials existing under customary international law. The African Group recalls the view expressed by the International Court of Justice that the