	Tranquility Committee then chaired by Daw Aung San Suu Kyi.
	8. Four rule of law centres have been opened so far in four main cities in Myanmar. The centres provide training, with a substantive focus on local justice issues linked to international rule of law principles including fairness and equality, to lawyers, law teachers, and civil society representatives, as well as fostering general awareness of the law among the public. Taking this opportunity, I would
