• Second: it is prohibited to cause unnecessary suffering to combatants: thus, it is accordingly prohibited to use weapons causing them such harm or uselessly aggravating their suffering. In application of this principle, States do not have unlimited freedom of choice of means in the weapons they use.

Mr. Chairman,

	Against this backdrop, the Islamic Republic of Iran fully recognizes the indispensable role of international humanitarian law, especially the provisions of the four Geneva Conventions in minimizing the negative impacts of armed conflicts. As such, cognizant of horrible consequences of IHL violations, the Islamic Republic of Iran has made constant efforts in ,	promoting publicizing and dissominating branched of HH including amount it
