

On behalf of the Ship Council Chamber.

In this regard, I wish to share with you the topics that the coordinators have agreed to address in this year's Meeting:

The prohibition on the use of force under international law; non-State actors and self-defense defense.

Insofar as the dynamics and the very nature of armed conflicts continue to evolve, it is necessary to discuss the any challenge arising from the use of force in the context of international law, and the challenges that arise from the use of force in the context of international law, and the challenges that arise from the use of force in the context of international law.

The prohibition on the use of force is a fundamental principle of international law, and it is essential to discuss the challenges that arise from the use of force in the context of international law, and the challenges that arise from the use of force in the context of international law.
