Cooperation with academic institutions, call for sponsoring of associate experts and use of the United Nations internship programme

Mr. Chair,

Turning to the question of cooperation with academic institutions and use of the United Nations internship programme referred to in paragraph 11 of resolution 73/206, I am pleased to report that the well-established cooperation with the University of Ottawa, Faculty of Law, for the past nine years, is still active. As mentioned in the Secretary-General's report, this cooperation led to the preparation of 12 studies.

With a view to revitalizing cooperation with academic institutions and pursuing a diverse geographical spread, the contributing to the preparation of Repertory studies, through the involvement of their national academic institutions.

In the past biennium, the Codification Division also invited academic institutions to which members of the International Law Commission are affiliated, to consider contributing to the preparation of studies. This has led to the establishment of a framework of cooperation with Peking University in 2018, which has undertaken the preparation on one study, as I mentioned earlier.

ultimate responsibility for the quality and the final preparation of all studies.

Funding

As regards funding, in paragraph 14 of its resolution 73/206, the General Assembly reiterated its call for voluntary contributions to the trust fund established pursuant to its resolution 59/44, in order to eliminate the backlog in the Repertory. In that regard, the Codification Division sent a note verbale dated 7 January 2019 to all permanent missions to the United Nations , reminding them of the possibility of making voluntary contributions to the trust fund and inviting them to bring the question of funding for the Repertory to the attention of private institutions and individuals that might wish to assist in this regard.

Since the issuance of the 2019 report, the Secretary-General consultants for the preparation of studies pertaining to volumes that are nearing completion is envisaged.

Mr. Chair,

In an environment of increased financial constraint, voluntary contributions to the Fund indeed remain a crucial element for sustaining progress on the Repertory and maintaining its website.

I would thus like to seize this opportunity to call upon your continued support for the Secretariat's work on reducing the backlog in the publication of the Repertory through Member States' voluntary contributions to the Fund.

Thank you, Mr. Chair.
