

Statement by H.E. Archbishop Bernardito Auza Apostolic Nuncio, Permanent Observer of the Holy See, 74th Session of the United Nations General Assembly, 6th Committee on agenda item 79: Report of the International Law Commission place where he or she may be subjected to crimes against humanity. Refugees and migrants fleeing persecution should be welcomed, protected, helped and integrated.

On the other hand, we believe that the elaboration of the new convention should focus squarily on codifying existing customary law and promoting international cooperation.