

Joint administrative and management policies are being put in place to improve the detection, suppression and investigation of terrorism-related crimes and to ensure appropriate engagement with civil society organizations and the media, including to raise awareness within the general population of the measures being taken to counter such criminal activity.

previously, executed a total of 45 such requests.

---