Madam Chair,

Al-Salam Alaikum wa Rahmatullahi wa Barakatuh

I have the honor to speak on behalf of the OIC Group on the agenda item “Measures to eliminate international terrorism”. At the outset, allow me to congratulate you on your election as Chair of the Sixth Committee, and I would like to assure you of the OIC Group’s full support throughout the work of the Committee.

Madam Chair,

The OIC Group condemns terrorism in all its forms and manifestations, regardless of the motivations, the identity of the perpetrator and the location it was committed. OIC reaffirms that terrorism constitutes a flagrant violation of international law, including international humanitarian law and human rights law, in particular the right to life. Terrorist acts endanger the territorial integrity and stability of States as well as national, regional and international security.

The OIC Group reiterates its respect for sovereignty, territorial integrity and political independence of all States in accordance with the UN Charter.

The Group reaffirms that terrorism cannot and should not be associated with any religion, race, faith, culture, ethnicity or is necessary to combat all terrorist groups and organizations wherever they exist without any distinction.

Once again, the Group reiterates the need to distinguish between terrorism and the exercise of the legitimate right of people to resist foreign occupation and would like to stress that this distinction is duly observed in International Law, International Humanitarian Law, Article 51 of the Charter of the United Nations, and the General Assembly resolution 46/51 which also endorses this position.

Furthermore, the Group believes that it is essential that Member States should enhance their cooperation and coordination with the aim of prosecuting the perpetrators of terrorist acts, denying terrorist groups access to any finance, safe havens, assistance or weapons. It is also imperative to enhance the cooperation and coordination to refute the narratives and ideologies of terrorist groups and organization.

The OIC reaffirms that the UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy constitutes an ongoing effort and is a living document, which should be updated and re-examined regularly. We stress the importance of enhancing capacity-building of Member States to assist them in the implementation of various obligations of UN resolutions, through increasing the resources for UN entities and departments entrusted with this task, as well as enhancing bilateral technical assistance and transfer of technology. In this regard, the OIC recognizes the central role and the contribution of the United Nations Center for Counter Terrorism (UNCCT) in this context.

In this regard, the OIC welcomes the adoption of the GA resolution on the Seventh review of the UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy, on 30 June 2021, which attuned to Member-States' counter-terrorism priorities including some of the OIC's. The updated strategy recognized with deep concern the rise in instances of discrimination, intolerance and violence including cases motivated by Islamophobia, in addition to the increased risk of terrorist attacks on cultural property and religious sites. Also, noting the exploitation by the terrorist groups of grievances caused by Covid-19; calls upon Member States to take appropriate measures to address the new and emerging threats posed by the rise in terrorist attacks on the base of xenophobia and racism.
