

:00 pm)

---

-Adenauer-Stiftung to the United Nations in New York, The Permanent Mission of the Kingdom of the Netherlands to the United Nations, the Justice Leaders and The Hague Institute for Innovation of Law have the pleasure to invite you to an in-person panel discussion to reflect on the challenges and outlook for judicial independence in the context of the 2030 Agenda particularly in relation to Sustainable Development Goal 16: "Promote just, peaceful and inclusive societies".

On October 14th, 2022, the United Nations Special Rapporteur on the Rule of Law and Transitional Justice in Conflict and Post-Conflict Situations, Philip Alston, will present his report to the United Nations General Assembly in New York. As he concludes his mandate as UN Special Rapporteur this fall, he examines the contributions of his previous reports to the achievement of the targets of

