Statement by Loureen Sayej, Third Secretary, before the 77th Session of the General Assembly Meeting of the Sixth Committee on the Report of the International Law Commission Cluster II I:

Mr. Chair,

The topic is of importance to the State of Palestine. The development and consolidation of international law, its treaties and conventions and other sources, are based on common understanding of general principles of law and valid through all kinds of human societies.

The State of Palestine is of the view that general principles of law are expressions of both national legal systems
