

PERMANENT MISSION OF THE KINGDOM OF TONGA TO THE
UNITED NATIONS

Trusteeship Council Chambenited Nations Headquarters, New York on Wednesday, October 2022

Check against elivery

250 EAST 51ST STREET, NEW YORK, NY 10022 TEL: (917) 369- 1025 FAX (917) 369- 1024

EMAIL : tongaunmission@gmail.com( 11( W*nBF4 12 Tfl 0 0 1 18.33 615.7 Tm0 (

Thank you, Mr. Chairman,

Our delegationappreciates the opportunity for us to take the of the Protection of Persons in the Event of Disasters is a topic of paramount in forms aim of the existential threat of climate change due to increased intensity and severity of hurricanes, day in, day out; rapid rise in the weed adue to melting sea ice; and recently more frequent earthquakes recorded, due to increase of the total control of the protection of paramount information and recently more are the protection of paramount information of the protection of paramount information of the protection of paramount information of

Mr. Chairman,

we conveyour heartfelt condolences to the governments and peoples of Morocco and Libya, especially the families of the victims, for the tragic loss of live in the recent natural disasters that occurred in their respective countries.

Mr. Chairman,

Tonga was once ranked the second most at risk in the world to natural disasters, and rightle so, as Scientists around the world were left oblivious to an unprediscontant education of the 15 January 2022, when an underwater volcano of high days and the second most at risk in the world to natural disasters, and right so, as Scientists around the world were left oblivious to an unprediscontant education of the second most at risk in the world to natural disasters, and right so, as Scientists around the world were left oblivious to an unprediscontant education of the second most at risk in the world to natural disasters, and right so, as Scientists around the world were left oblivious to an unprediscontant education of the second most at risk in the world to natural disasters, and right so, as Scientists around the world were left oblivious to an unprediscontant education of the second most at risk in the world to natural disasters, and right so, as Scientists around the world were left oblivious to an unprediscontant education of the second most at risk in the world were left oblivious to an unprediscontant education of the second most at risk in the world were left oblivious to an unprediscontant education of the second most at risk in the world were left oblivious to an unprediscontant education of the second most at risk in the world were left oblivious to an unprediscontant education of the second most at risk in the world were left oblivious to an unprediscontant education of the second most at risk in the world were left oblivious to an unprediscontant education of the second most at risk in the world were left oblivious to an unprediscontant education ed unprecedented heighth fact almost as high as the Statue of Aibcontoling to 15 Januto 8BT /