

UN General Assembly – Agenda item 79
Report of the International Law Commission on the work of its seventy-third and seventy-fourth sessions (Cluster 2)

Federal Republic of Germany
Michael Hasenau, Legal Adviser

31 October 2023

[REDACTED] / Mr. [REDACTED]

With regard to the second cluster, Germany intends to address both topics. Allow me to start with the topic of “ “international disputes” in the future work. Also, we

[REDACTED]
International Organizations so as to avoid contradictions or misunderstandings in the work of the Commission. Germany will continue to work closely with the Commission and other States and international organizations in the Sixth Committee.

