Thank you, Chair, and thank you to the proponents of this application.

In its decision 49/426 of 9 December 1994, the General Assembly decided to limit ineligible for observer status in the General Assembly because it is not an intergovernmental organization. In particular, its membership is made up of states, but rather serves as a platform for individual members of national Parliaments. The IPC was also created by a resolution of the Senate of Pakistan and not as part of an international agreement between
