

General Assembly
Seventy-eight Session
2 October 2023
Sixth Committee
Agenda item 109
Measures to eliminate international terrorism
Statement by Denmark on behalf of the Nordic countries

M(r/s). Chair,

I have the honour to address the Sixth Committee on behalf of the five Nordic countries: Finland, Iceland, Norway, Sweden and my own country, Denmark.

efforts to coordinate international efforts on countering and preventing terrorism and violent extremism.

M(r/s). Chair,

The Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy subject to review earlier this year. We are encouraged by the maintaining of language on respect for international law, including international human rights law and international humanitarian law. It is imperative that all counter-terrorism measures comply with our obligations under international law. In addition, we maintained strong language on gender, and the rule of law. This is critical for the strategy to remain credible and effective. Further efforts are needed to enhance the coordination and cooperation of interventions, ensuring that all UN entities truly deliver as one.

Finally, as this is our first statement in the Sixth committee, and the committee is the primary forum to discuss legal matters, we reiterate our resolute condemnation of Russia's unprovoked and illegal war of aggression against Ukraine. Russia's brutal aggression constitutes a clear violation of the