

Case No. 2012-381

Pio

(Appellant)

v.

United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board

(Respondent)

3. Article 10 (1) of the UNAT Rules of Procedure, entitled “Additional documentary evidence, including written testimony”, provides:

1. A party may seek to submit to the Appeals Tribunal, with an appeal or an answer, documentary evidence, including written testimony, in addition to that contained in the written record. In exceptional circumstances and where the Appeals Tribunal determines that the facts are likely to be established with such additional documentary evidence, it may receive the additional evidence from a party. On its own volition, the Tribunal may order the production of evidence if it is in the interest of justice and the efficient and expeditious resolution of the case, provided that the Appeals Tribunal shall not receive additional written evidence if it was known to the party seeking to submit the evidence and should have been presented to the Dispute Tribunal.

In view of the fact that the authorities Mr. Pio seeks to enter post-date his appeal to the Appeals Tribunal and may prove relevant to his case, I have decided to admit them. The
