Mr. President
Excellences
Ladies and Gentlemen

Let me express the support of the Slovak Republic for efforts to enhance the discussion on one of the most crucial topics of the United Nations, for all Member States, but above all for every single human being living on our Planet.

I would like to align my statement with the statement of the European Union as presented earlier.

Discussion: how to achieve Millennium goals by the 2015 and how to define post-2015 sustainable and development agenda including

We have to give more support to the idea of
