

6. Moreover, for the United Nations to fulfill its role in global economic governance is critical to be equipped with the necessary resources and capabilities to effectively and quickly address global challenges.

7. We reiterate the need for mechanisms to ensure increased cooperation and exchanges between the United Nations and International Financial Institutions, as well