

In recognition of challenges facing the forest sector, Partner States have been developing and implementing programs, strategies, policies and legislation with aim of attaining sustainable forests conservation and management. The conservation programs, strategies, policies and legislations have evolved considerably overtime to reflect changing in societal and global demands. The EAC Secretariat further initiated the development of regional forestry policy and strategy to support regional forests conservation and complement national forestry

