MALAYSIA'S INTERVENTION

Madam Chair,
Your Excellencies,
Distinguished Delegates,
Ladies and Gentlemen

Malaysia take notes on the progress made in the United Nations Convention on Biological Diversity (UNCBD), United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) and the recent World Forestry Congress (WFC). It is our view that each of these platform has its own objectives and purposes.

At the Rio Earth Summit in 1992, Malaysia has made a pledge to maintain at almost three decades later, Malaysia has not abandoned on that pledge. Malay 1% or 18.27 million hectares of its total land area.
