

and recommendation for exceptional approval. In all cases, however, coverage under the programme is based on the underlying principle that the medical services must be medically necessary and provide restorative care. Claims for services and treatments not covered under the insurance programme are not covered under this process.

19. The above paragraph clearly provides that “claims for services and treatments