

Today, different accusations were made against my country with regard to the situation in Ukraine. Of course, we reject these lying allegations. Although, it is important that the masks come down. And the same it is true for the Doha Program of Action. The masks of donors come down, and least developed countries should not expect any serious assistance.

Now, in a more specific manner with regard to the document issues which are problematic for us we would like to inform you about the following.

We cannot agree that the common action and cooperation in the interests of the LDCs should be based on the "concept of human security", which is not supported by all countries.

We are convinced that
