

Officer-in-charge at the United Nations Technology Bank for the Least Developed Countries

She also leads the work on Research, Analysis and Technology Needs Assessments at the Technology Bank. Previously, as Research Fellow at Tiresia, Politecnico di Milano, she worked on research and advisory to support the development of social innovation and impact investing in Italy and Europe.

Federica has also worked on social policy analysis and research at UNICEF Eastern and Southern Africa Regional Office in Nairobi, Kenya, with a focus on Public Finance for children and youth, and as Project Manager at the Allianz Foundation.

Federica holds a Master's in Economic and Social Sciences from Bocconi University and is a Global Shaper Alumna and a 2019 UNLEASH Talent.