

partners during the pandemic. The enhanced value of South-South cooperation revealed as a result of the pandemic is described in the report of the twentieth session of the High Level Committee (A/76/39), which highlights some new priorities for South-South cooperation necessitated by the pandemic, including the

