

6. In conclusion, it was noted that further discussions and comparative analysis of the existing frameworks for cooperation in post-conflict situations maybe helpful in supporting the work of the Peacebuilding Commission.
7. The Chair thanked all panelists and participants and noted that a summary from the meeting would be circulated to all members of the Peacebuilding Commission.