

2012 PBC Annual Session

In June 2014, at its first Annual Session³ conflict. The discussion may address aspects related to the socio-economic, justice, political or security situations in the countries and it will benefit from the perspectives of countries concerned, regional and sub-regional organizations, international financial institutions (IFIs), relevant UN entities and representatives of civil society.

Sub-theme 2: What role for the PBC in accompanying countries undergoing different types of transitions

In view of the challenges faced by countries in transition from conflict to sustaining peace, it is clear

The closing session will be addressed by the Presidents of the General Assembly and the Security Council.

Interactive working sessions on sub-