New York, May 2021

Excellency,

We write to you in our capacity as co-facilitators of the intergovernmental negotiations related to the Seventh Annual Review of the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy (GCTS).

Let us start by thanking you for your participation in the ongoing process. In our works we will convene the next informal consultations on Monday, 10 May, at 10 am, as an in-person meeting in the General Assembly Hall. The main object of these meetings will be the discussion on the first revision (Rev1) of the draft resolution.

We look forward to your views and active engagement in the upcoming meeting.

We wish to remind you that you can use the following e-mails for any further inputs or statements at any time during this process: procdesquierdo@maec.es and meer11@gmail.com

Once again, we reiterate our commitment to ensuring the process is completely open, transparent and inclusive and count on your active participation and support.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of our highest consideration.
