ASSISTANCE AND IMPACT

In 2022, the Team of Experts strengthened the judicial response to conflict-related sexual violence crimes by continuing conflict-related sexual violence cases. Such cases were recognised as a constituent element of international crimes in more than 70% of the closed priority cases.

In March 2022, the Team of Experts worked with MONUSCO-UNPOL (Specialised Police Team on Sexual and Gender-Based Violence) and UNDP in DRC to organise two training sessions on the investigation of sexual and gender-based violence (particularly conflict-related sexual violence) within the United Nations Joint Justice Reform Support Programme. The training was attended by 56 judicial police officers of EPEPVS and military investigators from Goma, Bunia, Rutshuru,
