

And of course, my deepest gratitude to my colleagues, Co-Chairs Achim Steiner and Damilola Ogunbiyi and UN-Energy as a whole for the hard work and collaboration in turning the Dialogue a truly impactful event.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

The Dialogue is not just a conference. It is a start of a new phase.

We now have all main elements of an ambitious and action-oriented global roadmap towards attaining SDG7 by 2030 and net zero emissions by 2050

I look forward to continued engagement with all of you.

And now I have the honor to hand the floor to Ms Amina Mohammed, Deputy Secretary-General of the United Nations and Chair of the United Nations Sustainable Development Group to deliver her remarks at the end of our Leadership Dialogues.

Thank you.
