

FACT SHEET
COUNTRIES IN SPECIAL SITUATIONS

x Countries in special situations face myriad challenges as they pursue sustainable development, with transport often being a key element. They are all especially dependent on transport networks and also highly vulnerable due to factors such as insufficient infrastructure investment and limited capacity, poor cross-border connectivity, and greater exposure to climate change and extreme weather events.

x