

Remarks by

Lana Nusseibeh

Ambassador and Permanent Representative of the United Arab Emirates to the United Nations

At 2019 Third Quarterly

resolutions, including resolution 2250 (2015) on youth, peaced security, while also taking into

We look forward to welcoming government officials, youth representatives, community and religious actors and representatives 6 NGOs UN entities and regional and international organizations More details will be sent to Member States due course.

In conclusion, we look forward to convening a successul conference and to shain gits outcomes with you during the next Highevel Conference of Heads of Counterrorism Agencies of Member States in 2020. The UAE will continue to support regional and global efforts that aim to eliminate the evolving transnational threats of extremism and terrorism at we find ourselves facing at this critical time.

Thank you.