

-
- i To ensure easy access on a searchable database/portal to comprehensive, available and up-to-date information on all forms of violence against women in all parts of the world, as well as actions taken to address such violence;
 - i To encourage further collection, availability, use and dissemination of data on violence against women, as well as analysis of such data;

-
- i International legal and policy framework
 - i Laws and legislative provisions on violence against women
 - i National Action Plans/Strategies addressing violence against women
 - i Data/statistics
 - i Institutional mechanisms
 - i Jurisprudence
 - i Promising practices

i Available information

- › States parties' reports to human rights treaty bodies (particularly CEDAW)
- › Information provided by Member States in follow-up to the Beijing Platform for Action and the outcome document of the 23rd special session of the GA, and in inputs to reports of the Secretary-General to the GA and CSW
- › Statements made by Member States during the general debate of the GA and CSW
- › UN agency/entity information
- › Information provided by Member States to regional inter-governmental bodies

i Future sources of information

- › Member States responses to questionnaire
- › Network of country focal points
- › UN entities

-
- i Technical aspects
 - i Consult with UN system, especially the Task Force of the Inter-Agency Network on Women and Gender Equality
 - i Develop questionnaire for Member States
 - i Develop timeline for establishing and maintaining the database