

United Nations Commission on the Status of Women Fifty-sixth session 27 February – 9 March 2012 New York

INTERACTIVE EXPERT PANEL

The empowerment of rural women and their role in poverty and hunger eradication, development and current challenges

Focus: Economic Empowerment of Rural Women

THE REPORT OF THE EXPERT GROUP MEETING ON: ENABLING RURAL WOMEN'S ECONOMIC EMPOWERMENT: INSTITUTIONS, OPPORTUNITIES AND PARTICIPATION

by

MALIKA ABDELALI-MARTINI Socio-Economist, Community and Gender Analysis Specialist, International Center for Agricultural Research in the Dry Areas (ICARDA) Algeria Excellencies, Distinguished delegates and keynote speakers, Dear colleagues, Honorable Ministers and representatives of Member States, Ladies and gentlemen: Rural women in agricultural and non-farm work: Farmers, producers, workers and entrepreneurs

Agriculture

s t t commercial land acquisition t t s 'land grabbing'

Rural women's access to research and technology

ttt ttt ys u t V t t t t access to new technologies t t t s t t t 's t t tt utu ut t t s s 'S needs, interests, and constraints vu t SS st t ssts t differ from men's у s sts t s t t t public sector

Ladies and gentlemen, allow me now to highlight the main recommendations adopted by the Expert Group Meeting:

Recommendations

- ttst tut z
- U 'S 'S V S V S multi-dimensional and dynamic
- U Sagents of change
- sleaders s s u s s t u s s v s t s s
- Diversity of rural women
- Full enjoyment of indigenous women and men to land
- v ts s s ty human rights of rural women and men
- Violence against women ssts
- Mut t t st s rural economies
- nequalities and challenges SS S tuts SVS
- Economic marginalization U

Therefore u sus tt t rural development frameworks tt t utt risks and opportunities U S U S tt rights, aspirations and needs U t t t v syst s t t inclusive economic t ∨ decentralization growth strategies t tst t y u 's t green economy V у st u ts t v sustainable development and help mitigate climate change t u t utu s tt tsst ttt vtsu tsst s

			recommendations					ss t				t st			S u		st	S		u tu	t	u	s u	S S	S	i i	st y
	ι	L	V		t	t			t	u t	S	;	t		у
	١	/		t	t		u	ty		S		u t	S	ut t
	S	u			S	S				st tut	S	У		z t	S t	u	S		SS		t	SS	t	S	s'		zt s	u		's z t	S		t	v t	t s t

tu s

u t tv t

&lt;u>tt u t s s t

1. Economic policies, growth and equality

t t economic policies fully prioritize decent work and employment SU generation t t institutional and policy environment that promotes decent work u Increase investments in infrastructure Develop and implement policies and programmes that support women t u tu s t Promote rural and indigenous women's knowledge, products and services t tt t policies, programmes and incentives t u v 's tv effective engagement in the global value chain Introduce tax systems and other fiscal and macro-economic measures that redistribute wealth t ts S s ty u U. t measures that offset the negative impact of global and regional v trade agreements u 's u t v s Emphasize channels for development, testing, application and dissemination of frameworks and tools 2. Equal access to and control of land and other rural productive resources su t t national laws and policies guarantee women's right to land Ensure that laws and policies on land are implemented and known yt t t uts tt S tt v t t t gender-sensitive land and property u laws t st tut y ust V Promote changes in customary law t SU ss t u SS t t tt joint titles s SU t u V S ts u consent of each spouse for the sale of land, or its use as su s t collateral; registration of land for collective use SU su t t t t S t us S u ty st tut st t limit the quantity of national land that foreign countries and corporations can buy ts v u t su st protect the rights t t u V su t t changes st t s t u syst s do not cause environmental damage, do not destroy the ecosystems Prepare resettlement plans t V S u s tu s utu stu t Enable small-holder farmers ttv utv t su t women as actors in climate change adaptation and Ζ u t s st t mitigation S St s S v environmental service payment schemes t t t utu 's ts t s su t t u v access to productive resources and inputs SU St facilitate uptake of technology by rural women y  $\vee \vee$ st s t t u s t S vt

3. Provision of and entitlement to services

ss y s st u tu u women's access to information, education and training t s st tempower rural producers' and women's organizations t South-South exchange US t s s t t su t t access to essential service

5. Monitoring and evaluation

t t data collected at all levels is disaggregated y s t SU v s vz u s us y t st S t st t u ts t t st t time-use surveys tt t us su t tt t economic growth includes the contribution of SU rural women and men in paid and unpaid work su t t v data and information is widely disseminated SS Develop the capacities of rural women and their organizations t t t t t t v t v ts t t v s t u t v training in participatory methods t s t sts у s t t v s t s s 6. Resources t adequate financial resources in national budgets t t u SU financial support for rural women's organizations u SS s 's u ts 7. UN system y t gender equality and diversity commitments syst s u t tsv s ts z t s s v ts t t tz zt s y u u ty ssu s t t s t u t ttsts vs syst S U improve gender statistics and data disaggregated y S tu tysu S t V

9. Conclusion